Communication skills

Strategic networking and diplomatic sensitivity: I am a Romanian ambassador for ARGH (Association Francophone de Gestion des Ressources Humaines <http://www.agrh.fr/les-ambassadeurs/>). I am a Member of the Scientific Council of the University Agency of the Francophonie (AUF). These positions have allowed me to better understand other people.

My ability to keep one’s emotions under control and restrain negative actions when faced with opposition or hostility from others or when working under stress is a consequence of my experience in the international environment.

I was a conference speaker in the intercultural management domain and human resources management

Mediating skills: As a professor, I have encouraged the students and other colleagues to overcome cultural barriers and background differences, to listen actively, to remain objective when facing criticism, and to express negative feelings constructively.

Intercultural skills: I work on the borders between students and researchers - I was implicated like professor together with professor Maurice CONTAT Saint-Etienne School of Management (SESOM), France and Professor Nathan HIMELSTEIN, New-Jersey Institute of Technology, U.S.A., in the research program “Alliance for the Promotion of Cross-cultural Skills for Business Students” promoter Department of Education Washington and Directorate General for Education and Culture, European Union. Organisational / managerial skills

Negotiation skills: As a member in international projects, I demonstrated the ability to negotiate in a constructive manner
Conference organizer: I was, and I am a member in many organizing committees for national and international conferences.

I stimulated and encouraged the cooperation between my university and the other universities around the world (for example, Co-operation with staff and teacher from other International Universities in various scientific projects – For example universities from France, USA, UK, Swiss, Belgium, Italy, Portugal, and Holland).

I voluntarily worked for Corporate Social Responsibility Audit in Romanian enterprises.

Therefore, I set and redefine priorities and reorganize people to increase the department’s response capacity to internal and external demands.

I am member of the Academic Advisory Committee of the Global Corporate Governance Institute - <http://gcg-csr.org/global-corporate-governance-institute-organizing-committee.html> -
